GROH GLOBAL GALA

Associate Director S. Miller introduced this agenda item and school superintendent Jay Fedosoff.

Superintendent J. Fedosoff shared highlights from this student-led event with a purpose of helping newcomers feel more welcome in the school and community. The Groh Global Gala was one of a few projects students successfully received funding from Smart Waterloo Region Innovation Lab (SWIRL). Other projects included a picture book, commissioned graffiti art in a school and Cultures Unboxed podcast.

A video from the Groh Global Gala was shared.

Director j. chanicka noted that this work continues through the leadership of teachers at Groh Public School, and several secondary schools, and shared that students are trying to target challenges in their local communities while reaching curriculum targets with increased engagement.

Trustees asked questions regarding curriculum and shared appreciation for this innovative approach to skill development.

STAFF FOLLOW UP

CONSIDERATIONS FOR GUEST SPEAKERS

Associate Director S. Miller informed the Board that topics being presented by guest speakers are linked to content in the curriculum, a provincial Regulation, or may be in alignment with Board Policy 1008 - Equity and Inclusion, especially sections 2.1.3. and 2.1.4. The topic may also promote mental health and well-being for students as outlined on the Ministry of Education Curriculum Resource Site. He shared that guest speakers may provide opportunities for students to learn about diverse perspectives and see themselves reflected in the curriculum, learning and school communities.

Trustees asked questions regarding screening processes and communication to families.
